

CONTENTS

County Durham Local Initiatives and Development Projects 2004 The Workers Educational Association

1.1 Introduction

1.2 The Workers Educational Association and Widening Participation

1.3 The European Social Fund Rebuild Project 2003 and the 2004 - 2006

Bidding Round

1.4 The Role of The ESF Development Worker

1.5 The ESF Rebuild Project Learner Profile 2003

2. Research Process

2.1 Introduction

2.2 Research Methodology

2.3 Sample

3. Research Findings

3.1 Defining Community Provision

3.2 Analysis of Quantitative Statistics of WEA ESF Rebuild Project 2003

3.3 Analysis of WEA ESF Rebuild Project Male Provision 2003

3.4 Analysis of Interviews of WEA ESF Rebuild Project Tutors 2003

3.5 Analysis of Interviews WEA ESF Rebuild Project Male Learners 2003

3.6 Analysis of WEA ESF Rebuild Project Publicity Material 2003

3.7 Summary

4. Other Non WEA Provision and Men

4.1 Case Study One

- 4.2 Case Study Two
- 4.3. Family Learning and Men
- 4.4 Life Long Learning and Men
- 4.5 College Provision

- 5. Targeting Male Learners

- 6. The Need For Men Friendly Organisations

- 7. The Need To Work In Partnership

- 8. Best Practise Countywide

- 9. A More Focused Project

- 10. Recommendations
 - 10.1 Best ways to recruit, progress and support male learners
 - 10.2 Appropriate means to overcome barriers to learning
 - 10.3 Provision

- 11. Conclusions
- 12. Bibliography
- 13. Tables

Figure 1 – Male Learners Course Preferences

14. Appendices

A Learning and Skills Council Co Durham ESF Objective 3 Co-Financing 2004 to 2006 Bidding Prospectus

B. Interview Questions for Research Project (Students and Tutors)

C. Statistics for Male Learners on ESF Rebuild Project 2003

D. Including Men In Community Provision – Interview Schedule

E. LIDF Research Project Including Men In Community - What Men Want

F. Men-Friendliness Organisational Self Assessment

G. Action Plan For Becoming More Men Friendly

H. Planning Tool